Afghanistan Workforce Development Program (AWDP) Frequently Asked Questions

No	Questions	Answers	Remarks
1	Is there any mechanism or guidance developed by AWDP to help Afghan organizations find international organizations for partnership?	AWDP can't have guidance for either national or international organizations due to the fact that all grants are competitive and AWDP needs to stay neutral and impartial. Additionally, it is the local or international partner to decide, based on the requirements outlined in the RFA and its corporate capabilities, whether or not a partnership is needed. Both national and international organizations are encouraged to seek partnership, but it is not a requirement.
2	Should grant application be submitted in printed or electronic copies?	Both electronic and printed copies of grant applications are accepted by AWDP.
3	Can training be only for graduates of universities?	The goal of each RFA is to increase job placements and the grant applicants strategy for recruitments of trainees need to address the requirement of the RFAs. In the RFAs, two categories of trainees are introduced: Mid-career/Semi-professional Employees and Job seekers. Both graduates and final year students of universities can utilize the C3 services.
4	Should applicants apply separately for each RFA?	Yes.
5	Is it compulsory to apply for all cities?	It is not compulsory to apply for all five locations of AWDP under any of the RFAs. Organizations may only apply for cities where they believe they have the expertise, experience and ability to operate.
7	Can trainings be conducted abroad?	No. AWDP RFAs require all grant applicants to adapt the curriculum for training to the needs of the labor market in Afghanistan. Trainings conducted abroad will take time to adapt and are usually expensive. An applicant/application that includes a suggestion for trainings outside Afghanistan will be carefully reviewed. Since the RFAs call for a modular and competency based approach, it will be difficult to get trainings customized to the specific context and demand of a private company in Afghanistan.
8	What is the maximum ceiling of grant amount for this round of AWDP grants opportunities?	AWDP's ceiling for any individual grant for Afghan national organizations in this round of grants opportunities is US$75,000.00 to US$100,000.00. Applications will be reviewed based on their technical merit and costs will be negotiated based on the USAID ADS 303 cost principles.

9	Should applicants obtain concurrence from the private/semi-public sector entities on training needs before submitting applications?	Yes. All grant applicants are required to contact private/semi-public sector entities and obtain their concurrence on proposed training needs and send a validated demand assessment report in the AWDP standard template which is attached as annex E in the RFA announcement and at least three completed MoUs with private sector entities/companies.
10	What if the required certifications (attached as annex K to the RFAs) are either incomplete or not submitted with the application?	If the grant applicants application passes the first two steps of technical committee review which are a) Technical Approach and Implementation Plan and b) Budget, AWDP will revert back to the grant applicant and ask for a revised submission of Attachment K – Certifications.
11	Any possibility for extension of grants duration exceeding 7 months?	All AWDP grants of this round must be completed within 7 months from the date of the signature of the grant agreement. In case grantees due to specific reasons cannot implement the grants in a given time, there is possibility of three months no-cost extension which will be given to those grantees. Please be reminded that all grant payments are milestone-based and there will be no advance payments under any circumstances.
12	Is there any specific training methodology preferred by AWDP for trainings?	AWDP does not specify what training methodology is preferred. However, all trainings should be according to market and employers demand and the methodology used for trainings must be participatory and competency based to achieve the goal of improving the competency and skills of the trainees.
13	What if an applicant do not develop a new database for employment related services, but instead they start partnering with existing databases developed by ACBAAR, Wazifa.com, and Jobs.af?	It is an AWDP RFA that the applicants develop a database for ERS as specified in the RFA. Applicants should explain their methods on how they will develop a database and how will it be used during the grant implementation. The full information given in the announced RFAs – Section F, Under technical application requirement) Job development and database – page 8.

48	Who can an applicant telephone if they have questions regarding their application submission?	It is not possible to telephone anyone at AWDP. Please submit your questions via email to AWDP: grants@crea-awdp.com and the team will respond to each question in-time.
49	Is there a different application process between on-budget and off-budget applications?	Yes, off budget applicants attend the pre-application conference and then submit an application, if they wish. The term of the application is 9 months maximum. On-budget applicants first submit expression of interests (EOI) in response to a request for expression of interest (REOI), shortlisted consultants submit a proposal. After the shortlisting process, the on-budget organizes a pre-application conference similar to off-budget. The term of the proposal in the on-budget is 10 months maximum.
50	What language can the curriculum delivery be in?	English, Dari and/or Pashto; based on the demand from the private sector and needs of training participants.
51	What exactly are the "mid-career" criteria?	Education is most important along with experience. For further information and definition please read the RFA.
52	Will an applicant be penalized if they do not address the five cities AWDP lists?	No. AWDP encourages applicants to consider geographic representation based on their capacity to deliver quality training and placement program.
53	Will AWDP check the legitimacy of the organizational profile?	Yes, in all instances and without exception
54	Does AWDP review all the curricula?	Yes, and it is important to remember that AWDP's definition of curriculum differs from the general curriculum definition. AWDP needs a list of specific skills that have been demanded by the private sector companies.
55	Is the amount of experience an organization has a factor for who is awarded a grant?	Yes but we also encourage newer organizations to apply too.
56	Why does AWDP focus on five cities (e.g. Kabul, Mazar, Jalalabad, Herat and Kandahar)?	According to the survey results conducted by USAID and AWDP these five cities are the key Afghan economic centers. Now Kunduz province is excluded from the list.
57	Does AWDP check the donor references we provide?	Yes, in all instances and without exception.

58	Are there any concessions for the fact that some applicants have more connections than others which impacts ease of placement?	No.
59	How can grantees deliver the AWDP when it was initially designed in 2012 when Afghanistan's economic situation was much stronger?	AWDP recognizes that economic conditions have changed and still grantees are able to successfully achieve their placement targets. Demand for specifically skilled Afghans increases when competition is high.
60	Is it possible to include internships in our application?	No, AWDP is a short term program which does not allow waiting for trainees to obtain internships and then find a job. Also, internships are for entry-level Afghans/workers while AWDP's focus is on mid-career/semi-professional Afghans.
61	Can we sub-contract with another organization or implement it in partnership with another organization?	No sub-contracts, no sub-awards, and no sub-grants are allowed under FAAs.
62	Who verifies the grants certification format?	The applicant is required to sign and stamp all the required certifications and submit them to AWDP. This will be part of the application package that is submitted to USAID for approval.
63	Who processes the personal information form for USAID vetting?	Vetting initiates after an application is shortlisted for an award. Applicants provide the required information on the key individuals such as Tazkira numbers, job titles, phone numbers, email addresses and residential addresses. ADWP - Grants Team will complete the form and submit it to USAID for vetting. If the applicant receives notice of eligibility and a grant is awarded, these key individuals should not change during the course of grant implementation.
64	Should we submit financial receipts with milestone documents?	No, financial receipts are not required in a FAA. However, all grantees are required to file all the finance documentation for USAID and SIGAR audits.
65	Does AWDP count self-employment as a placement?	No, self-employment is like starting one's own business. The AWDP is not intended for business owners, the self-employed, interns, or entrepreneurs.
66	Can grantee organization owners receive training and be counted as a placement if they receive a salary increase after training?	No. AWDP is for mid-career employees and job seekers not for business owners.
67	How can we ensure that the training the participants receive matches private sector demand?	The applicants should write their strategy to ensure their training match the requirements of PSEs

68	What strategy should we use to locate job seekers or eligible employees to train?	This mechanism should be described by applicant.
69	Must the PSEs be women-owned companies?	The PSEs can be either male or female owned.
70	What if the economic conditions deteriorate?	AWDP only requires that 50% of the trainees be placed.
71	Can the trainers be part-time?	Yes. However, your technical application must detail this clearly and also your budget notes must describe this in details.
72	Is it possible to deliver the program in less than seven months?	Yes, it is possible but generally shortening the time is not recommended as there are many tasks to be accomplished.
73	Can we place people in provinces other than where they have been trained?	Yes.
74	How can not-for-profit organizations implement AWDP without receiving financial resources up front?	Every organization must ensure they have adequate funds to cover their initial costs as they will receive no advances. Milestone completion requires approximately a month. A three month financial cushion is advisable.
75	Are there transport allowances available?	No.
76	Can a person participate in ICT training when they have already received AWDP training?	Yes, but the training topic must be different than the one s/he received before.
